

Brown-bag lunch:
Water, Toxic Wastes, Climate Change -
Environment-related resolutions under the Human Rights Council

Friday, 18 April 2008, 12:15 -14:00
Meeting room 2, International Environment House 1

At its recent seventh session, the Human Rights Council adopted several resolutions and decisions related to environmental issues, including climate change and a new mandates on the access to safe drinking water and sanitation.

You are cordially invited to an informal brown-bag lunch at which legal experts will review the content of these decisions and their implication for health and environmental protection efforts.

- | | |
|-------|---|
| 12:15 | Sandwiches and drinks |
| 12:20 | Introduction – human rights and the environment -- Yves Lador, Earthjustice Permanent Representative to the UN in Geneva |
| 12:30 | Human rights and the illicit movement and dumping of toxic and dangerous wastes -- Ms Melissa Fernandez, Special Procedure Division, Office of the High Commissioner on Human Rights |
| 12:45 | Human rights and access to safe drinking water and sanitation -- Claude Cahn – Centre on Housing Rights and Evictions |
| 13:00 | Human rights and climate change – Ambassador Abdul Ghassor Mohamed & Marc Limon, Permanent Mission of Maldives - Stephen Humphreys, International Council on Human Rights Policy - Nathalie Bernasconi, Center for International Environmental Law |
| 13:20 | Discussion |
| 14:00 | End |

Sandwiches and drink provided. If you wish to attend, please send an email to fatma.gordon@unep.ch