

Second Meeting of the Friends of Climate Change and its Implications for the Full Enjoyment of Human Rights:

“Human Rights and Climate Change: Exchange of Views between States, Intergovernmental Organizations, Civil Society, and Academia”

Monday 2nd June, 13.00hrs-15.00hrs (lunch provided)

Palais de Nations, Room XXII

Draft Agenda

Introduction by H.E. Mr. Abdul Ghafoor Mohamed, Permanent Representative of the Maldives; Mr. Stephen Humphreys, Research Director, International Council on Human Rights Policy

“Highlighting the Human Face of Climate Change: A Human Rights Framework”, H.E. Mr. Reinhard Schweppe, Permanent Representative of Germany

“Human Rights Law and Climate Change: Towards Complementarity?”
Prof. Laurence Boisson de Chazournes, Professor of International Law and Director of the Department of Public International Law and International Organization at the Faculty of Law of the University of Geneva. Visiting Professor at the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (Geneva)

“Human Rights Thresholds in Climate Change Policy”, Prof. Simon Caney, Professor in Political Theory, University Lecturer, and Fellow and Tutor in Politics, Magdalen College, University of Oxford

“The Human Reality of Climate Change in Bangladesh: A Human Rights Case Study”, Mr. Mustafizur Rahman, Minister, Permanent Mission of Bangladesh

Those interested in attending are kindly requested to complete and return the attached Reply Form.